

I have had the distinct pleasure of knowing Julian for most of his 43 years of membership in the UAW. We started our careers together, organizing hard working Americans under the banner of trade unionism and fighting to ensure workers would receive a decent wage for jobs well done.

Following his graduation from Roosevelt High School in east Los Angeles, Julian began his career at ITT Cannon Electric. In 1956, he was drafted and served with distinction in the U.S. Army. Julian returned to ITT Cannon Electric, after his tenure in the Army.

After serving as UAW committeeperson, in 1968 Julian was elected chairperson of over 3,000 members to help with organizing drives for UAW Region Six. He also served until 1974 on the staff of the International Unions Manpower O.J.T. and an east Los Angeles community development corporation as an instructor for on-the-job training program.

In 1975, Julian was elected Local 509's vice president and service representative. Among his other duties at local 509 have included: coordinator of community services; the CAP Council; recreation committee; retirees committee; and the F.E.P.C.

Currently, Julian serves as an international trustee, a position he was elected to at the International UAW Convention, and as local 509's president.

Julian and his lovely wife of 28 years, Marlene, have four children, Lorraine, Larry, James, and Mark, three grandchildren and one great granddaughter.

Mr. Speaker, Julian Cervantes has been a true champion for America's working men and women. His legacy of fair and decisive leadership will serve as a guiding light for local 509's membership in the days to come. I ask my colleagues to join me in saluting this great American and wishing him well in his retirement.

A TRIBUTE TO ED MULLANEY

HON. CONSTANCE A. MORELLA

OF MARYLAND

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 12, 1996

Mrs. MORELLA. Mr. Speaker, I take this opportunity to acknowledge one of Montgomery County's finest teachers, Ed Mullaney, on the occasion of his retirement. For 30 years, he has ensured that the students of the Montgomery County school system received educations of the highest standard. First a geography and history teacher at Leland Junior High School and later a social studies teacher at Bethesda-Chevy Chase High School, Mr. Mullaney energetically devoted himself to the students he taught. Yet far more than just teaching them academics, he educated students about community service.

As a founder of teen organizations, sponsor of yearbooks, student governments, and sports programs, Ed Mullaney gave of himself so that the communities of the schools in which he worked would be stronger. At B-CC, he was often recognized as the spirit of the school, a teacher who made students realize how fortunate they were to attend Bethesda-Chevy Chase High School. Even when they left, students could not forget Mr. Mullaney, for he even organized alumni events during his past 7 years at B-CC.

Wherever Mr. Mullaney has been, he has encouraged his students to involve themselves in their communities. He realizes that community spirit is the key to a successful education.

I fondly remember that when I was a Maryland State Legislator, Mr. Mullaney could be depended upon to bring students of the highest caliber to the State capitol. His organization of these excursions was always beyond the duty of a teacher, but he wanted to give his students something more than a classroom education.

Ed Mullaney will be missed both as a teacher and a leader in Montgomery County. Mr. Speaker, I am honored to add my voice to the praises of his students and colleagues who gather to salute him.

SAVING MEDICARE IS "MISSION: IMPERATIVE"

HON. MARTIN R. HOKE

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 12, 1996

Mr. HOKE. Mr. Speaker, the Medicare trustees have just issued their annual report and the news isn't good.

Medicare is now losing money for the first time ever, and will be completely broke by 2001 unless prompt, effective, and decisive action is taken to control costs.

Last year the trustees—who include three members of the Clinton Cabinet—projected Medicare wouldn't run out of money until 2002. So the situation has worsened.

But as bad as the news is, the American people need to know that regardless of who wins in November, Medicare's financial crisis will be solved.

Letting Medicare go bankrupt simply is not an option.

Both Congress and the White House have offered plans that limit the rate of growth in Medicare spending—by strikingly similar amounts. The White House would increase spending 7.2 percent annually, Congress 7.0 percent. To put this in perspective, bear in mind that private sector health care spending is now growing at less than 3 percent annually.

This no doubt comes as a surprise to those who already have suffered from overexposure to the semihysterical, patently false, and politically motivated mantra of "cuts, cuts, cuts." President Clinton himself put it well: "When you hear all this business about cuts, let me caution you that that is not what is going on. We are going to have increases in Medicare."

While the sides essentially are in agreement with respect to how much, there are significant differences as to how.

The President and those who believe Washington knows best are committed to a top-down, bureaucratic solution that would increase the Government's role in the health care of our seniors, essentially identical to Mrs. Clinton's defeated health care plan of 1994.

The far better solution is to modernize Medicare by giving seniors the kinds of options, including medical savings accounts, now available in some of the best private sector plans, while preserving their right to stay with traditional Medicare. In addition, we must mount the first ever attack on the waste and fraud that have helped bring Medicare to the brink of bankruptcy. The congressional plan to preserve Medicare contains both of these elements.

Unfortunately, some folks, including politicians, Washington special interests groups, even the President, have indulged their partisan ambitions by intentionally trying to scare seniors into believing that Congress might take their Medicare benefits away from them. Helping to spread the poison are the big labor bosses in Washington, who have spent millions of dollars confiscated from their own rank and file membership on advertisements pusing that same big lie.

Yet when you cut through all the political grandstanding, one thing becomes crystal clear: the longer a Medicare solution is put off, the harder and more unpalatable the choices become.

We need all sides working together now—not as Republicans and Democrats, but as Americans—to solve this problem.

So the next time you hear someone attack Congress for killing Medicare, ask them to show you their plan to save it. Chances are they won't have one. That's because they're thinking more about the next election than the next generation.

A RECOGNIZED HERO

HON. JOE KNOLLENBERG

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 12, 1996

Mr. KNOLLENBERG. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor a special person and true hero—Chief Warrant Officer 2 Wade Chapple of Milford.

The operations group soldier was recently awarded the Soldier's Medal of Honor for an act of heroism that saved a Colombian man's Life.

Serving a 3-year tour as a tactical training advisor to the Colombian Army 10th Airborne Division in Malgar, Colombia, Chapple and his crew rescued an injured Colombian man who had fallen off a cliff.

First, Chapple was able to diplomatically convince the base commander to provide a helicopter for the rescue. After landing on a small finger of open space nearly 700 feet below the injured victim, Chapple and his crew of two men went to work.

Chapple scaled the vertical climb dragging a stretcher that was tied to his waste.

Upon arriving at the injured man, Chapple notice multiple injuries and the man in shock. Working quickly to immobilize the man, Chapple and his crew eased the injured man slowly down the steep face of the mountain.

The helicopter rushed the victim back to the base and there a waiting ambulance rushed the man to the hospital. Three months later, Chapple met the man who was beginning to walk again and has since recovered.

The incident was reported to Chapple's commanders by the Colombian Army without his knowledge.

Chapple is a symbol of today's military. Compassionate, skilled and heroic. Wade put his life on the line to save a man he didn't even know. I am proud of Wade Chapple. His great and noble rescue has made our community smile.
